ebm-papst receives silver medal in 2026 EcoVadis rating

Significant improvement over previous year

Mulfingen, 30.09.2026
The ebm-papst Group scored 75 out of 100 points in this year's EcoVadis rating, earning the silver medal. This places the company among the top 15 per cent of companies evaluated by EcoVadis.

Compared to last year, the overall score increased from 65 to 75 points, with ebm-papst making progress in all four assessed areas: environment, labour and human rights, ethics, and sustainable procurement.

This award reflects the quality of the Group's sustainability management, among other things. EcoVadis also recognises ebm-papst's commitment to greater transparency throughout the entire value chain.

ebm-papst uses EcoVadis' evaluations to identify areas for further improvement and develop strategic measures in sustainability management. These include group-wide reporting, optimised documentation, and additional external audits and third-party certifications.
